City of Chanhassen Promotes Ruegemer to Park & Recreation Director Effective August 1

Chanhassen, Minn., July 16, 2020 - The City of Chanhassen is pleased to announce the promotion of longtime Recreation Superintendent Jerry Ruegemer to Park and Recreation Director effective August 1, replacing outgoing Park & Recreation Director Todd Hoffman, who will retire at the end of July after 33 years with the City in the Parks & Recreation department.

Ruegemer has served the City and community admirably for 30 years in the Parks & Recreation department in his current position, and also previously as Recreation Supervisor. His extensive knowledge, expertise and rapport with City staff and residents make him a great fit for the job.

If you've ever reserved an athletic field, picnic shelter, or attended any of the dozens of Parks & Recreation-sponsored recreation programs and special events over the years, you've most likely encountered and worked with Ruegemer. His personable nature and work ethic have enabled him to forge strong bonds with local athletic associations, businesses and individuals in the community. We look forward to Ruegemer's continuing the well-established tradition of excellence and service to the City's residents for which Chanhassen's Parks & Recreation department is known.

Ruegemer can be reached at 952-227-1121 or jruegemer@ci.chanhassen.mn.us.
